SHIELD

A Journey Through River Valley

High School

Foreword

The 1963 student body, of River Valley High School, is proud to be the first to attend classes and participate in the activities of our new high school. We have watched the progress of our four small high schools; Caledonia, Claridon, Martel, and Waldo, as they consolidated into one school district. All this has made it possible for us to enjoy this modern and well-equipped new building. The Board of Education, school officials, and architects have given much time and thought in the planning of this building, and to them we are most grateful.

In preparing the 1963 Shield, we have tried to capture some of the spirit and memorable moments of this school year, as we unfold a "Journey Through River Valley High School."

The Shield Staff

We the Shield Staff Proudly Dedicate This Annual to . . .

Mr. A. B. Augenstein

It is with deep admiration that we present this, our first yearbook, in honor of Mr. Augenstein. He has given much of his time and has worked unceasingly for the educational improvement of our community. We, the Shield Staff, wish to express our sincere appreciation for all he has done.

Administration

MR. A. B. AUGENSTEIN
Superintendent

Superintendent's Message

Our first year, as River Valley High School, has been an outstanding one. We have had championship athletic teams, superior ratings in music, and many fine achievements in scholarship.

These successes have been responsible for, and at the same time the result of, fine support from the community. I wish to thank everyone who helped to build this fine spirit. May we continue to merit this support.

A. B. Augenstein

MR. CHARLES E. BROBECK
Principal

Principal's Message

The opportunity for a class or a community to be "first" provides the opportunity to think imaginatively and to forge ahead, unencumbered by patterns from the past. This great privilege of being first belongs to this year's class at the River Valley High School.

It is exciting and it is solemn because the standards you set academically and socially will influence succeeding classes down the years. I congratulate you on all the "firsts" you have known thus far in your school experiences and on the "firsts" which shall be yours in the years to come.

you

The administration, faculty, and Mrs. Boger, Mr. Kennedy, thanks for all you've done,

You've helped us with work and also

Many projects were held, a dance was

Then we sold magazines, refreshments, everything under the sun.

Our biggest joy was Washington, D.C.

probably see.

Now, as we part to go our separate ways
We thank everyone for our school days.
You've guided us, helped us,
showed us our way
So to you, sponsors and teachers, many thanks is all we can say!

We're bouncy, we're bubbly, we're happy, we're gay,
This about the junior class they always say.

We've held dances, served banquets,
many other things too We've had fun at them, and the work we suffered through.

The McKinneys, our sponsors, have really been wonderful We'll admit that with us a moment is never dull.

Our prom, April Love, was a lot of fun

It lasted till 7:00 A.M. and a good time was had by everyone.

So look out, Valley, we're coming back next year,
You can't get rid of us, we'll still be here.

As seniors we will work to make you proud of us too
For, River Valley High School, we're proud of you!

SPONSORS

This is only our second year of high school,
But our sophomore class is really cool.
We say thanks to our sponsors,
Mr. Klein and Mr. Dill
For we've surely run them through the mill.

We had a Valentine's party that was truly gay
And our boys served a banquet for the F. H. A.
Booster stickers we sold, a coat check we had
Which nearly drove Mr. Dill and Mr. Klein mad, mad, mad.

So, two more years to go at R. V.
high,
Yes, two more years before we say,
"Goodbye."
Look out, faculty, we're coming back
And none of our gaiety and jest will we lack!

As freshmen we are the youngest ones here

But that won't be the case next year.
Yes, next year sophomores we plan to be.
And our individual bank accounts will grow (we're saving for Washington, D. C.)

Mr. Kline and Mrs. Guinther have been very patient with us
For our class can really raise a fuss.

Our class party was the highlight of our time,
More of them there will be as through high school we climb.

So, as the youngest here we put our two cents in
And say we, too, are coming back again.

Yes, three more years here at R. V.
See you next year when sophomores we will be!
